CHEAP TRANSPORTATION.

Meeting of the Association Yesterday-"Freight To Be King"-Resolutions Indorsing the Constitutional Amend-

The Board of Management of the New York Cheap Transportation Association met yesterday afternoon in the rooms of that organization at No. 110 Pearl street. The President of the association, Mr. B. P. Baker, occupied the chair. The routine business took up but little time, the most important part of it being the election of seventy-one merchants and mercantile firms to membership in the association. Mr. John F. Henry rose and read preamble declaring that, whereas the constitutional amendments to be voted for in November are unpartisan in character and in the interest of the entire people and of importance to the busi-

Resolved. That it is the duty of every citizen to vote for these amendments and to exercise his induence with others to secure their adoption. Mr. Samuel H. Randall said many voters did not even know that constitutional amendments were to be passed upon at the coming election. It was the purpose of the politicians to deleat the amend-BY MEANS OF THAT IGNORANCE.

fr. Randall went on to review the amendments and to show that their effect would be beneficial to commerce. He was especially anxious to show the necessity lor lopping off the system of lateral canals from connection with the main trunk lines. These lateral canals were, he said, suckers, and not feeders. Speaking of the questions that agitate the mercantile community he said that the commerce of New York had not increased recently as much as that of Montreal, Portland and several other ports. Though he did not feel that he ought to be the critic of our merchants he could see that they were afflicted with apathy, that they were wanting in the energy which would create the necessary transportation and terminal lacilities. Their ought to be two great railway systems throughout the land, one for reight and the other for pussengers. Freight must be king; but at present it is often made to wait for the palace cars of presidents, of governors and of directors.

After air, Randall's speech the resolution of Mr. Henry was adopted. Subsequently it was decided to provide every member with a list of the proposed constitutional amendments and to send the press copies with some remarks as to the extreme value of the proposed changes.

A letter from the Cotton Exchange was then read by the Secretary, in which that body announced that it had chosen a committee to act with representatives of the Cheap Transportation Association and other bodies in improving THE TERMINAL AND TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES of New York; and also one from the Society of Civil Engineers, informing the Transportation Association that the former body were about to examine into all the projects for public improvements, especially the numerous plans for rapid transit and the supply of means for storage of merchandise, and asking for histornation about such projects. A circular of invitation from the American Cheap Transportation Association, whose annual convention will occur in Richmond, Va., on December I, was then read. The Board decided to appoint at the next meeting delegates to the Convention.

When all other business was done Mr. B. P. Ba-ter left the room, and, during his absence, the the necessity for lopping off the system of lateral canals from connection with the main trunk lines.

Ra-ker left the room, and, during his absence, the Secretary read a letter from him resigning the Post of President of the association. The Board unanimously requested Mr. Baker to withdraw the letter until the next annual meeting of the association. He consented, saying he could not pay as much attention to the affairs of the association as he had hitherto.

THE BODY-SNATCHING CASE

The College Authorities Give Up the Corpse-The Result of the Post-Mor-

(From the Buffalo Express, Oct. 12.1 The interest taken in the matter of the removal of the body of Mrs. Catherine Carey from its last resting place in the Holy Cross Cemetery at Limeone Hill was fully manifested in the Police Court Saturday afternoon, that being the time appointed for the examination of the students o were in the dissecting room at the Medical College when the so-called remains of Mrs. Carev were found. The five students who were caught at work on the body in the dissecting room of the Medical College were requested to take their to their names as follows :- Joel N. Greene, Frank Sherwood, John McDonald, Arthur M. Barker and Benjamin A. Wacherly. After they were seated Mr. Carey was called to the stand. On seated Mr. Carey was called to the stand. On being questioned by Justice Nash, he said he was confident that the body was that of his wife, but he did not feel inclined to make any further fuss about it.

Mr. Gorham then stepped forward and told Carey that they would give him the body under the following conditions:—'That he (Carer) would aflow a post-mortem examination to be held on the body in the afternoon, and that if he then still persisted that they were the remains of his wife be could take them." To these conditions Mr. Carey agreed and the matter, so far as Justice Nash was concerned, was dropped and the remaining five students were discharged.

In the afternoon several physicians met at Crowley's morgue and the post-mortem examination was conducted by Dr. Edward M. Brush. The following certificate was the result of the examination:—

We, the undersigned, do hereby certify that we have this day made a post-mortem examination of the body of a temale lying in Crowley's Morgue, in the city of Buffalo, which body was brought there from the Medical College in Buffalo, and was claimed to be the body of Mrs. Richard J. Carey, by her friends. We also certify that the female whose body we examined as aforesaid, died of chronic inflammation of the stomach and bowels, and not of cancer of the womb or any other parts.

And we, Drs. Burwell, Loomis and Greene, certify that

In spite of the foregoing certificate, Mr. Carey insisted upon taking possession of the body. After the post-mortem examination was concluded the body was taken from the Morgue and removed the Carey's residence on the plank road, in the Thirteenth ward. The remains were placed in the same casket from which the body of Mrs. Carey was taken, and yesterday the funeral took place. A nearse and two carriages formed the funeral procession. When the cemetery was reached the comin was taken from the hearse and lowered into the same grave from which Mrs. Carey's body was taken.
